

EXT. KAT'S HOUSE - EVENING

Nancy swiftly walks down the street, tugging her jacket on as she goes. Kat follows closely behind.

KATHERINE

Nancy! Nancy, wait!

Nancy pauses, and zips up her jacket.

KATHERINE (CONT'D)

What's going on? What happened back there?

Nancy turns to face Kat.

NANCY

I fell asleep.

KATHERINE

(in disbelief)

You fell asleep during grace?

NANCY

Yes, I did. I can't help it sometimes.
I just--

KATHERINE

What? Is it, like, narcolepsy or something?

NANCY

I fell asleep. And when I did, he was waiting.

KATHERINE

Are you sure? I mean, you only had your eyes closed for a few seconds.

NANCY

Of course I'm sure! He was sitting in YOUR chair!

Nancy begins to walk off. She stops in her tracks and turns to face Kat.

NANCY

And by the way...what could you have possibly told your mother about me? We've known each other for all of two days.

KATHERINE

Yeah, well, it doesn't seem like you have a very good track record for keeping your friends around for long.

Katherine's face quickly turns pale as she realizes what she has just said.

KATHERINE

Oh. Oh God. Nancy, I'm so sorry. I didn't mean to say that.

NANCY

Very nice.

Nancy turns and begins quickly walking away. Katherine calls out to her.

KATHERINE

Nancy! Nancy, where are you going?

NANCY

Back home.

Nancy continues to walk away, and leaves Kat behind.
